BIG DEMAND FOR SEATS AT VOGEL'S REVUE

Keen Interest Being Manifested in the Coming of John W. Vogel's Black and White Revue.

Manager Russell of the Washington Opera House reports that the advance sale of seats for the coming engagement of John W. Vogel's Black and White Revue is far exceeding his expectations and that all indications point to a sell-out. This is not to be wondered at when it is considered that the reports from all cities played recently by the Revue agree in saying that it is the greatest show of its kind and that the attendance in most instances has been limited only by the size of the theater.

Our local theater-goers have ever been willing and anxious to patronize meritorious attractions, and they appreciate the fact that John W. Vogel's name has always stood for the best in the entertainment line. John W. Vogel's Black and White Revue is a show replete with novelty, originality and humor—a show of mirth, melody and music, interspersed with specialties that would be top-liners on any vaudeville bill. Beautiful scenery, gorgeous costumes, and the general excellence of the performers have won the highest praise from the critics. Reports from the cities and towns played by the Revue attest the fact that it is a well merited success, playing to packed houses.

The advance sale of seats, as before mentioned, indicates that the engagement at the Washington next Saturday, Christmas Day, will be a record breaker in point of attendance, and in order to avoid disappointment it will be well to secure tickets early.

FOUR BODIES ARE STILL MISSING IN THE RIVER WRECK

Five Bodies Recovered From Wrecked Steamer Yesterday—Other Four Bodies Expected To Be Found Today.

Augusta, Ky., Dec. 22. — At 3:30 Tuesday afternoon the steamer Margaret was sighted by the United States steamer Miami and a dredgeboat, after working all day, and raised until about one-half of the upper cabin was out of the water.

Divers McGuffen and Moore said they could not get into the cabin to search for the bodies, and long poles with iron hooks were used to search every stateroom on the boat, but the search was unsuccessful until a hole was cut in the roof directly back of the pilot house, where five bodies were found.

Mrs. H. V. Pittman, 32 years old, was found, with her two daughters, Evelyn 10 years, and Virginia, 8, clasped in her arms. Little Virginia was burned about the face, no doubt by the heavy stove in the cabin, which overturned when the boat began to list before sinking. In the same room were found the bodies of William H. Kling, 74 years old, the veteran river engineer, and James Coffey, 24 years old, both of whom were members of the Margaret's crew.

There is no question but that all of them were at supper when the boat began to sink, and they were attempting to go through the room where they were found to escape to the upper deck of the boat when the Margaret went under.

The bodies of Mrs. Pittman and her children are being prepared for shipment to Springfield, Ill., their former home, while the body of William H. King has been claimed by his son, John, who will have the remains buried in Ohio. The body of James Coffey will be taken to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Stella Hart, where the funeral services will be held.

The work of recovering the remainder of the missing, Captain George Hart, his daughter, Mrs. James Coffey, Dewey Smith and William Hines, is being pushed as rapidly as possible, and it is believed all of them will be found in the immediate vicinity of the Margaret when she is raised from the water.

BAND MEMBERS TO RECEIVE CHECKS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Fat Checks To Be Delivered To Members of the Maysville Boys' Band At Friday Afternoon's Christmas Party at Court House.

All arrangements are now complete for the big Christmas Party at the court house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the poor kiddies of the city. Every detail has been carefully worked out by the committee of business men who have been ably assisted by a committee of interested women.

The kiddies who come to the court house to receive their Christmas toys and candy and nuts from Old Santa Claus will be favored by a concert by the Maysville Boys' Band and the managing committee of the band will take this occasion to distribute to the various members of the band their checks which will represent their individual share in the fund which has been collected for music furnished by the band during the year. It is understood that the checks are very fat ones this year and the band members will have plenty of Christmas money.

As the time for the party nears, the committee is fearful of but one thing and that is that some worthy poor child will be missed. The members of the committee again today urge that the good people of Maysville locate the poor children in their community and see that their names reach the committee. The names may be left at the E. A. Robinson & Company's cigar store.

APPEAL IS MADE FOR COLORED PEOPLE

Head of Colored School Makes Appeal For Poor Colored Citizens.

Prof. W. H. Humphrey, of the Colored High School, this afternoon issued this statement:

There are a few worthy colored persons who will actually be without Christmas cheer and without even the dire necessities of life this Christmas unless those same good white people, who give to every deserving cause, give something to a special fund being raised to supply these needy colored people with Christmas cheer, food clothing and coal. I am making this plea at the request of some noble white souls, who know some of these cases.

The name of every one who gives to this fund shall be made known to these worthy colored persons. I am asking Messdames Sallie Marshall, W. C. Patton, Sudie Mason and Tebie Lewis to assist me in this worthy cause. Money, groceries and coal will be acceptable.

Please write me, Box 265, or telephone, either 739 or 251. Sincerely, W. H. HUMPHREY.

OPERATION COULD NOT RESTORE BOY'S SIGHT.

The Lexington Leader says: "Edwin Hampton, seven-year-old blind son of James Hampton, of Maysville, has been taken from the Good Samaritan hospital to the School for the Blind at Louisville. The boy has been blind for several years. He was brought to the Lexington hospital for an examination in the hope that an operation might restore his sight, but physicians decided after an examination that an operation would not be effective. The boy's mother was burned to death three weeks ago when fire destroyed the Hampton home."

Mr. Joseph H. Dodson, Who Has Been Engaged in Coal Business Here For Forty-Five Years, Sells Interests.

Mr. Joseph H. Dodson has sold out his coal interests only on the west side or Wall street to Judge W. T. Kenton. In this branch of his business Mr. Dodson has been engaged for the past 45 consecutive years and to his successor will continue his good offices.

Judge Kenton recently moved to Maysville from Mt. Olivet purchasing property here. He is a very active and successful business man and the people of Maysville are glad to know that he is to establish himself in business here. His engaging in business here will add much to the local business interests.

Mr. Dodson, who retires from the coal business, has probably been in business consecutively for a longer time than any other business man now in the city. In selling his coal interests, he is not retiring from his various other interests but will retain his office in the Dodson building at the corner of West Second and Wall streets and will continue his seed, feed and storage business as in the past.
